UNIT 0

0.1

Do you like animals? Have you got a pet at home?

- 1. Alex: I like cats more than dogs, but we have got both at home. The cat is usually outside but the dog is with us all the time. She's big and yellow. She has got long hair, long ears and a big smile.
- 2. Ellen: I like big dogs. We have got a big dog at home. He's grey with long ears. He's very soft and definitely a good boy!
- 3. Mark: I like all animals. Cats, dogs, turtles... I have got a turtle and a dog at home. The dog is very small, grey with yellow parts. She's my best friend.
- 4. Sandy: I like birds, but we can't have a parrot because my brother is allergic to birds. But we have got a dog. He's quite small and long, orange with white parts. He has short legs, and big ears.

0.2

- Lisa: Hello, everybody! My name is Lisa and today's topic is pets. Today, my guest is Tom. Hi Tom! Nice to meet you.
- Tom: Hi, Lisa. Nice to meet you too.
- Lisa: I know Tom is crazy about animals. Let's tell our listeners about it too, ok?
- Tom: Sure!
- Lisa: So, Tom... You've got a lot of pets at home, right?
- Tom: Yes, I have. My house looks like a small ZOO. We've got two dogs, three cats, a hamster and many fish.
- Lisa: That's a lot of pets! Can you tell us something about them?
- Tom: The dogs usually stay outside because they are big. They love to run around the garden. One of them is grey with big ears and short hair. The other one is white with black spots and long hair. The cats like to stay at home with us. When we are all on the couch and we are watching TV, they like to sleep on us!
- Lisa: That sounds like fun! What about the hamster and fish?
- Tom: The hamster is really cute. He is brown, white and black. But he sleeps almost all day, so I don't see him much. I like my fish, too. They make no sound, but they are still fun to watch. They are colourful and so quiet! Sometimes I enjoy watching them more than watching TV!

1.1

- Keep running, we have two more minutes!
- Look at the map. There are seven continents on Earth.
- I have got six apples and Mike has got thirteen apples. How many apples have we got?
- Click the right mouse button, make a copy, and paste the picture into your Word document.
- *musical instruments
- Look! Bees have got six legs but spiders have got eight legs.
- The book falls down. And why is that? It's because of gravity.

1.2

Every day we start school at 8 o'clock. Mondays are long. On Monday, we have Czech, English, Maths, History, and two Art lessons in the afternoon. On Tuesday, we have five lessons. I am always very hungry, because we have two P.E. classes before lunch. On Wednesday we always start with Czech, then we have Maths, Geography, Physics, and History. Thursday is an ICT Day. We start with ICT and we also have ICT in the afternoon. Friday is a difficult day, but we finish our week with a Music class. It's always fun.

1.3

- 1. Luke: I love chocolate. I don't care about lettuce.
- 2. Lisa: I don't mind films. I can't stand video games.
- 3. Mark: I love music. I don't mind books.

1.4

- 1. Cindy: I enjoy reading. I don't like drawing.
- 2. Will: I like cycling. I can't stand dancing.
- 3. Ellen: I enjoy sleeping. I can't stand running.

2.1

- Speaker 1: I always wear nice clothes. I usually wear dresses but sometimes I put on a shirt with a skirt. Accessories are very important, too. A nice scarf or a big hat can change the whole outfit.
- Speaker 2: I work as a manager at a big company. I wear a suit every day. I sometimes wear trousers with a shirt and a tie. I must look professional.
- Speaker 3: I am a very active person. I am always on the move, so I wear tracksuits and trainers every day. It's super practical and comfortable, too!
- Speaker 4: I like my comfort. I don't wear shirts with ties and formal trousers. You can usually see me in jeans and a T-shirt.

3.1

- Dialogue 1
- A: Excuse me, is there a post office near here?
B: Oh yes, there is. Can you see the yellow building? It's Café Royal. The post office is next to the café.

- Dialogue 2
- A: Pardon me, is there a car park near here?
B: A car park? Hmm. Let me see... Yes, there is a large car park quite close. It is opposite the hospital.

- Dialogue
- A: I am sorry, can I ask you something? Is there a shopping centre near here?
B: No, there isn't. But there is one about 15 minutes from here. It is between the train station and the bank.

3.2

- Speaker 1: Excuse me, do you have a minute? How do I get to the post office?
- Speaker 2: I'm sorry, can I ask you something? Where is the theatre?
- Speaker 3: Can you help me, please? What's the way to the church?

4.1

- My name is Suzy. I hate getting up early in the morning. But I like one thing about the morning – my dog Fred! When he sees me, it makes him so happy. His smile is so big that I can see all his teeth! He always moves his tail a lot, because he can't wait for our morning walk!
- My name is Michael and I have a rat at home. When I get up, I go and give her food. My eyes are tired in the morning, so sometimes I can't see her for a while. Then her long pink tail shows, and I can see her. I call her Pinky. Why? Her body is grey, but her nose, ears and feet are pink.

4.2

- Luke: Hi, Mia. Guess what! I'm getting a dog! I think dogs are the best pets ever!
- Mia: Lucky you! But I don't agree with you. Dogs are great, but so are cats! I think cats and dogs are good at different things. Dogs listen to you and they are friendlier, but cats are cuter and they are funnier when they play with a toy.

Luke: Yes, you are right. I like cats, too. I don't think cats are worse than dogs. I'm just really excited about getting a dog!

UNIT 5

5.1

The weather in my hometown is typical for Central Europe. Around 25 degrees in summer and around 0 in winter. The winter months are usually pleasant with little snowy rain, cooler temperatures and blue skies, but last winter was different. That day the sky was grey and it was extremely cold. It started snowing during the night and probably stopped in the early morning. My parents and I woke up at 8 a.m. on a freezing morning. We prepared to go out, but it wasn't possible to open the front door. When we finally opened it, we were shocked. There was snow everywhere. Then we started to look for our car in the snow. We found it after one hour. However, we couldn't go anywhere, because the streets were full of snow. At that moment, I had a brilliant idea. We needed to stay home and build a huge snowman.

5.2

In our family, we like to play games a lot. Each of the three kids has a different favourite game. Kelly loves to play chess. It's a slow game but Kelly doesn't mind. It means she has to think about her moves carefully. My younger daughter Ashley loves sudoku. It's a hard game but that's why she likes it. The kids like to play table football together. Ashley plays it very well but it's Stan's favourite game. It's a fast game but you can play it slowly. But you cannot play it quietly. We don't spend all our time inside, of course. Our favourite game to play outdoors is minigolf. Stan is very bad at playing it. Poor Stan. In our family, minigolf is a loud game. We shout at each other. We cheer... You can always find us on the minigolf course easily.

5.3

1. Last summer, my family and I went on holiday to Italy. It was great! I used my goggles a lot, because we watched animals in the sea. I took photos in the sea, too, with a special camera! Some days were also quite cloudy, so I didn't even need my sunglasses.

2. In winter, my older brother and I travelled to Austria for a skiing holiday. We packed everything in suitcases, but we also took a rucksack, because we wanted to go on a hike, too. We both took our phone chargers, and I took my wallet - I wanted to bring home some souvenirs!

Recording 1: Are you tired of hot weather? We have some good news for you. Tomorrow, there's going to be some rain and a slight breeze. After two weeks of sun, we all need it. It's not going to rain the whole day. It's going to rain in the morning and in the evening. In the afternoon we are going to see clouds only. As for the temperature, we are going to...

Recording 2: Are you thinking about going to the sea? This weekend is perfect for it. On Saturday we are going to have sunny weather and the temperature is going to be around 30 degrees in the afternoon. On Sunday we are still going to have sunny weather but the wind is going to get stronger. Please expect lower temperatures. The windy and sunny weather is going to stay until Monday afternoon but...

Part 1

Michael: Hi, Dad! I'm sorry, but I'm going to be late to Grandma's birthday party.

Dad: Why? What happened?

Michael: You see, there was an accident and the trams are not going to run for the next three hours.

Dad: But you must come! There are going to be twenty people at the party. They are all looking forward to seeing you.

Part 2

Dad: Michael, what about buses?

Michael: Oh, I'm going to check... A bus is leaving in 5 minutes, but there's also a problem.

Dad: What's the problem?

Michael: I haven't got a ticket right now.

Dad: Is there a ticket machine somewhere?

Michael: No, I can't see one.

Dad: Why don't you buy the ticket online, then?

Michael: There's no Wi-Fi here, and my battery is low.

Dad: So, buy it from the driver. That's the easiest thing to do.

Michael: Oh, Dad. The bus is coming. See you later!

UNIT 5

5.1

Ollie: Hello pomelos, welcome back! Yesterday I went swimming so I wanted to go outside today and film the perfect video about outside activities for you, but the weather today... sucks. The weather report said "partly cloudy" but instead it's raining the whole day. Can you hear the rain? It's okay, pomelos! I chose a different topic for you. But I need a helper.

Eric: Huh?

Ollie: My helper today is my brother! Say hi, Eric!

Eric: Hi, Eric! - So mean, sister! So... Why am I here?

Ollie: You are helping me film a video, of course.

Eric: All right. What's it about?

Ollie: Today we are presenting... Games to play indoors!

Eric: Nice.

Ollie: Okay, so... There are many types of games you can play indoors. First, there are PC games. That is, games you play on a computer or a laptop with a mouse and a keyboard. There are also controller games like Wii or PlayStation.

Eric: But those are good when you are alone. We don't have two controllers. Why am I here? Do I sit silently while I watch you play?

Ollie: Of course not. You can tell us examples of good board games!

Eric: Board games! The best games for bad weather. You can play Settlers of Catan, Activity, Dixit... Oh, let's play Clue!

Ollie: Well... We can... But these are better with more people.

Eric: True... We can invite Amy and Charlie to play with us!

Ollie: Yeah. Charlie loves Clue and Amy is fun to watch during Activity... But she left the school so quickly today. She has the Arts club. And Charlie has piano lessons, I think. What is a good game to play with only two people?

Eric: I know! We can play 'Who Am I?'. It's the game with post-it notes.

Ollie: Sounds good. Can you explain the game rules to the viewers?

Eric: Okay, so... First, everyone takes a post-it note and carefully writes a famous name. It can be an actor, an athlete... Then you stick it onto the forehead of the person next to you... Be careful! Don't let them see! After that you go in a circle. You ask questions with yes or no answers. You can ask things like: "Am I an actor?", "Am I a woman?" or "Do I speak slowly?". The first person to guess who they are is the winner! The game is quite easy to play. It's also easy to explain... But you can make it harder. Try guessing animals and everyday objects!

Ollie: I usually guess my name quickly. Eric is always so slow. And... Anyway! That's all for today, pomelos. I hope the game tips make your day better! What are your favourite games to play? Let me know in the comments. See!

Ollie + Eric: See you!
